

Kalamazoo Valley Museum

Kalamazoo, Michigan

Design Architect for new building

This project represents an innovative museum/college collaboration, functioning as both a public museum and an interactive learning center for college students and faculty. The 64,000-sq.ft. building includes 16,000 sq.ft. of exhibit space, a 115-seat Digistar theater/planetarium, and a 90-seat interactive theater.

