

Smithsonian Institution

Arts and Industries Building Washington, DC
Smithsonian Castle

Planning and Conceptual Design

At the request of the Smithsonian Institution, we embarked upon a complex planning and conceptual design project that involved development of a space program for virtually all of the Smithsonian's administrative areas (approximately 360,000 sq.ft.) housed in the Castle, the Arts and Industries Building, and in leased space off the Washington Mall. This work also included development of Conceptual Use Plans for interior renovation of both the Castle and the Arts and Industries Building.

